

Data protection statement concerning the registration

I undertake to observe the provisions of the Datenschutzgesetz ("Data Protection Act") and of the Personenstandsgesetz ("Personal Status Act"), each as amended.

When using the data from the Findbuch for Victims of National Socialism, copyrights and individual rights must be observed in all cases and the interests of third parties which merit protection must be safeguarded. Upon infringement of such rights and interests, I accept sole liability towards the injured parties. In such a case, the National Fund shall be indemnified and held harmless.

It is prohibited to transmit personal data to unauthorized persons or non-competent parties or to allow them to become aware thereof. The data may not be used for any purpose other than that stated upon registration; in particular, the automated capturing of data from the database is expressly prohibited.

In the case of publication, copyrights and individual rights must be observed and the interests of third parties which merit protection safeguarded. In particular, the interests of data protection pursuant to Sec. 11 (1) and (2) of the Bundesarchivgesetz ("Federal Archives Act") and the regulations of the respective archive holding the files must be observed.

I further undertake to hold the access data in safekeeping and protect it from use by third parties.

By registering to use the Findbuch, I declare my consent to the storage of my personal details.

Data protection notice

The protection of your personal data is a key concern of the National Fund of the Republic of Austria for Victims of National Socialism. Without exception, your personal data are processed in keeping with the latest provisions governing data protection, in particular the General Data Protection Regulation.

The following contains information about which data we process and for what purpose, and about your data protection rights.

We collect the following data during the registration process: your full name, your address and email address, and the information you have given stating the purpose of your research (both the check box and your explanation). In addition, we will also save a copy of the photo ID you have provided.

These data are used in accordance with the National Fund Law (on the basis of Sec. 2a (1) item 7 of the National Fund Law, Federal Law Gazette no. 432/1995 as amended) to activate your account (enabling access to the database of the "Findbuch for Victims of National Socialism"), to administer your account, to provide information pertaining to the Findbuch, and for statistical purposes. Your data will not be passed on to third parties.

The data protection legislation furnishes you as a data subject with comprehensive rights. First and foremost, these rights are intended to ensure greater transparency in how your data are handled. Your rights as a data subject are the right of access to all personal data concerning you; the right to rectification and erasure, to restriction of processing, and the right to object to processing.

If you have questions about the processing of your personal data, or any concerns, please contact us at:

Contact details of the controller:

National Fund of the Republic of Austria for Victims of National Socialism
Parliament
1017 Vienna
nf-sekretariat@nationalfonds.org

Or contact our data protection officer directly:

Mag. Doris Macht
Parliament
1017 Vienna
datenschutz@nationalfonds.org

Furthermore, you are entitled to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority about the processing of your personal details:

Austrian Data Protection Authority
Wickenburggasse 8
1080 Wien
Telephone: +43 1 521 52 25 69
Email: dsb@dsb.gv.at

Cookies

Our websites use cookies.

Cookies are data stored on your device, if your browser settings allow them. Cookies allow for a more comfortable use of our websites and facilitate usage statistics (see below). In the Findbuch for Victims of National Socialism cookies need to be enabled to login as a registered user. All other areas of our websites can be used without any notable restriction of user experience, if you disable cookies.

Usage Statistics

We keep usage statistics based on data automatically sent by your browser when you visit one of our sites, in particular this is: the website from which you visited us from (for example the search engine), the parts of our site you visit, the date and duration of your visit, your anonymised IP address, information from the device (device type, operating system, screen resolution, language, country you are located in, and web browser type) you used during your visit. No personal data will be collected.

The statistics are used for the improvement of our website and the detection and prevention of misuse exclusively. The data will not be handed to third party.

If you activate the "Do Not Track"-Settings of your browser no statistical data will be collected at all.