

Image not found or type unknown

A searched name does not correspond to the indicated address.

Aside from change of residence, street numbers and boundaries, information in directories may also be faulty. There is also the possibility that the searched address consists of two different address, for example if a building is situated on a corner.